N.B. The anthem for Maundy Thursday may be a duet.

The Trebles may concentrate on Lead me, Lord (Wesley); The angel rolled the stone away; This is the day

The following Lent/Holy Week/ Easter anthems (mostly already in our repertoire) may be substituted for any of the above, as appropriate, and practised as and when determined by Haydn:

From NCAB: God be in my head (Walford-Davies) p140; Ave verum (Mozart) p48; Ave Verum (Elgar) p.44; Wash me throughly (Wesley) p516; O Saviour of the world (Goss) p.330; The strife is o'er (Ley) p458.

Also: Spirit of holiness (Fest '09 p.9); The Lord is my shepherd (Goodall); Firmly I believe and truly (R. Shephard); O most merciful (OSA); When I survey – Morte Christe (arr, Archer); The Beatitudes (T4); This joyful Eastertide (Wood – T17)

And anything else suggested by members of the choir and agreed by Haydn.
